All Saints' Episcopal Church of Glen Rock to Host Second Concert in its New Series: Culture Close to Home

The Culture Close to Home concert series continues on March 4, 4:00 pm, with a Chamber Music concert featuring oboe, cello and piano.

DUO CAPRICE is composed of Luka Marcoux (oboe) and Emma Schmiedecke (cello), award-winning musicians who are completing advanced degrees in performance at McGill in Montreal, will be at All Saints' to share their passion for chamber music with us. They will be accompanied by Linda Sweetman-Waters, well-known locally for her skill at both piano and organ.

In addition to various combinations of oboe, cello and piano music, we will have the rare opportunity to hear the U.S. premiere of a work, To Begin Anew, by Matthew Kennedy (b. 1987). If oboes and cellos are unfamiliar instruments to you, come get to know their sound. Emma and Luka will be available and happy to answer questions. If you are already a fan of chamber music, come join us for some Culture Close to Home. Bring a friend!

About All Saints'

All Saints' is a Christ-centered faith community in the Episcopal (Anglican) tradition where all are welcome. Parishioners come from many backgrounds and perspectives, but share two commitments: to grow in our faith and to grow in love of God and neighbors through worship, service to others, and fellowship.
